Dear Mary,

Perhaps I've already written you about this. I've been looking for good, clear pictures of the President showing his tie, the knot and the relationship with the collar, for special purposes that will be clear to you when you are here and I show you what I have that is relevent. Gary's response was that you have some unpublished pictures fitting this description. If you do, I'd appreciate being able to look at them when you are there and, perhaps being able to borrow one or more. I do have enough in what is in print, but those are not as clear and are bulky, presenting a problem in carrying them into and using them in court.

Little new. I'm to go to Dad's again this a.m. on the suits. He has the one he is to handle ready to file and I'm to work more with the boys going over those I'll handle myself. He was out of the office most of Wednesday when I was there all day.

I'd like to have more confidence than I do in the computerizing of the data and to be more satisfied than I am that it is the best way to spend that much money and effort in this work.

Hope you are all well. Looking forward to your visit. Let us know when you've decided on exact dates, so we can keep them clear.

Best to all,
